Biography

In 2019, mytripismytrip – an analogue techno duo based in Leipzig, Germany – embarked on a journey to redefine live electronic club music. Fueled by a mutual love for dark, energetic hypno-techno and united by a profound allure to arpeggios, their live sets transcend convention and are nothing less than a radical departure from the ordinary. Each mytripismytrip performance is a unique, immersive experience where tracks evolve organically, shaping their final form and intensity in real-time.

Hailing from the worlds of post-rock and classical orchestral music, mytripismytrip shatter norms by sidestepping the trappings of excessive drops, opting instead for the fluidity of seamless transitions. Their choice to embrace analogue instruments over digital confines reflects their commitment to genuine musical interaction. Currently, mytripismytrip are captivating renowned clubs and prestigious festivals all over Europe with their distinctive sonic tapestry, where darkness and beauty converge. Guiding packed crowds through a transformative exploration of sound and sentiment, they create an unforgettable live music experience with every single set.
